

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION.

EXTRACTS FROM THE RULES, AS AMENDED DECEMBER 8TH, 1885.
MEMBERSHIP.

The Institute shall consist of Members, Honorary Members, and Associates. Members shall be Electrical Experts, Electricians, or Electrical Engineers possessing such knowledge of the principles of Electrical science, and such familiarity with the practical applications of electricity in its several branches as those branches imply.

Honorary Members shall be recommended by at least ten members or associates, and elected by the unanimous vote of the Council, but shall not be entitled to vote or serve as members of the Council.

Associate Members shall be such persons as are or have been connected with the utilization of electricity, or who by means of study or experimental investigation are qualifying themselves to become identified with electrical science, and such others to whose admission no objection shall be made by any member of the Council.

Proposals for admission shall be endorsed by at least three members or associates, and referred to the Council, which shall have power to elect to Associate Membership only.

All members and associates shall be equally entitled to the privileges of membership.

Transfers from associate membership to membership may be made by the Council upon application, subject to the approval of a Board of Examiners, which shall have the power from time to time to provide rules to test the qualifications of applicants. Such rules must be approved by the Council. Any person rejected by the Board shall have the right of appeal first to the Council, and finally to any meeting of the Institute.

DUES.

The entrance fee shall be five dollars for each person. The dues of members and associates shall be ten dollars per annum, payable in advance, at the annual meeting, except that new associate members elected, shall pay in advance pro rata, from the first of the month of their election until the next annual meeting. Honorary members shall not be liable to fees and dues. Any member or associate may become, by the payment of one hundred dollars at any one time, a life member or associate, and shall not be liable thereafter to annual dues. The dues of members residing in foreign countries—beyond the seas—shall be five dollars per year, but such members shall have no vote for election of members.

To the Council of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

I, Ell Wilbur Rice..... residing at..... Syrm Mass and at present associated with... Thomson... Asst. Elec. Engr.
as... Genl. Superintendent & Consulting Electrician do hereby make application for admission into the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, as an associate member, with the privilege of being subsequently transferred to full membership, should my record prove satisfactory to the Board of Examiners.

Ell Wilbur Rice

[Should the candidate desire to be transferred from Associate to full Membership, he should give upon the blank space below a concise record of his electrical career, also age, birth place, etc., referring if possible to present members or associate members of the Institute.]

Have been in active electrical business since 1880 - Until 1884 as Prof Thomson's assistant and associate, since 1884 have been Genl Supt & Consulting Electrician - Refer to Prof Elisha Thomson - Age 26 - Born in Lacroix, Wisconsin.

Ell Wilbur Rice
Syrm.
Mass.

J. W. Webster
T. C. Mathie
R. W. Pope

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION.

EXTRACTS FROM THE RULES AS AMENDED DECEMBER 17TH, 1885.

MEMBERSHIP.

The Institute shall consist of Members, Honorary Members, and Associates. Members shall be Electrical Engineers, or Electrical Engineers possessing such knowledge of the principles of Electrical Science, and such familiarity with the practical application of electricity in its several branches as those branches imply.

Honorary Members shall be recommended by at least ten members of the Council, and elected by the unanimous vote of the Council; but shall not be entitled to vote or serve as members of the Council.

Associate Members shall be such persons as are or have been engaged with the institution of electricity, or who by means of study or experimental investigation are qualifying themselves to become entitled with electrical science, and such officers to whose admission no objection shall be made by any member of the Council.

Proposals for admission shall be endorsed by at least three members or associates, and referred to the Council, which shall have power to elect to Associate Membership only.

All members and associates shall be equally entitled to the privileges of membership.

Transfers from associate membership to membership may be made by the Council upon application subject to the payment of a fixed fee of examination, which shall have the power from time to time to provide rules to test the qualifications of applicants, and rules must be approved by the Council. Any person rejected by the Council shall have the right of appeal first to the Council, and finally to any meeting of the Institute.

The entrance fee shall be five dollars for each person. The dues of members and associates shall be ten dollars per annum, payable in advance at the annual meeting, except that new associate members elected shall pay in advance one year from the first of the month of their election until the next annual meeting. Honorary members shall not be liable for fees and dues. Any member or associate may become an associate member by paying one hundred dollars at any one time, a life member or associate, and shall not be liable thereafter to annual dues, the dues of such members residing in foreign countries—provided the fees—shall be five dollars per year, but such members shall have no vote.

To the Council of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers
 I, Charles W. Kelly, residing at 100 West 11th Street, New York City, do hereby certify that the above named Charles W. Kelly is a duly qualified person to be admitted into the American Institute as an associate member, and that he is a resident of the United States of America, and that he is a graduate of the Board of Examiners.

Charles W. Kelly
 Secretary

JAN 9 AM '86

J. F. Kelly
Charles W. Kelly
J. M. Bainbridge

Approved by Bd. Ex.

No. 66.

[Should the candidate desire to be transferred from Associate to full membership, he should give upon the blank space below a concise record of his electrical career, also age, birth place, etc., retaining if possible to present members or associate members of the Institute.]

Transferred from Associate to full membership since 1880 - since 1884 as Prof. Thomson has been Prof. Thomson's electrical been to Prof. Thomson
Prof. Thomson in London, Michigan
Charles W. Kelly
Secretary