Dear Mr. Berger:

We learned earlier this week, with sincere regret, of the death of our Past Chairman A. M. MacCutcheon, and our editorial department is now preparing an obituary notice for the columns of the monthly journal, ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING.

We thank you for writing us and including the newspaper clipping.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Mrs. Alexander M. MacCutcheon
915 Alba Drive
Orlando, Florida

Dear Mrs. MacCutcheon:

The Board of Directors of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers by action at its meeting of April 7, 1954, extends to you the sincere sympathy of the whole membership of the Institute among which Mr. MacCutcheon had thousands of admiring good friends.

Standing in silent tribute to their Past President, the Board formally passed the following resolution:

"That upon behalf of the membership of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, the Board of Directors hereby expresses deepest regret at the death of Alexander MacCutcheon (AM'12 - M'15 - F'26), Director 1928-32, President 1936-37, Lamme Medalist 1947; and that sincere sympathy be extended to the members of his family."

Sincerely yours,

N. S. Hibshman
