Dear Mr. Hutchinson:

Is there any way, without going to too much trouble, for me to get a printed copy of pages 1360 to 1371 of the Transactions Vol. 27, part 22 of 1908. They contain the closing discussion of a paper of mine and are missing in my bound copy of my own papers. I of course have them in the Transactions but in the recent moving and condensation I packed up this set and as it is quite complete back to Vol. 1 I do not like to destroy a volume, and they are now not exccessible to me.

The reason I have not got them in my bound copy of my papers was because those pages did not appear with the rest of the discussion in the Proceedings tho presumably these additional pages appeared in some later edition of the Proceedings of that Atlantic City meeting, and I am sorry to say that I have disposed of my copies of those Proceedings, after the Transactions were published.

Do not go ^{to} ~~there~~ a great lot of trouble about it, but if convenient to send me one or two copies of these pages I would consider it a favor. The interest in that paper and the discussion are now being revived and I would like to have a copy without going to the libraries.

Thanking you for your favor, I remain

Yours very truly,

Carl Hering

Dr. Carl Hering,

Dear Sir:-

In answer to your letter of April 9th, we are mailing you under separate cover two complete copies of the paper which you presented before the Institute at the Twenty-fifth Annual Convention on July 2, 1908. These copies have been torn from otherwise mutilated copies of Vol. 27, Part II, of the TRANSACTIONS, and there will be no charge.

Two or three days ago we received an inquiry as to the cost of a complete set of the annual TRANSACTIONS. We informed the caller that you possessed a complete file of the TRANSACTIONS, Vols. 1 to 38 and that you were willing to dispose of them and that we trust that the call will result in disposing of the volumes advantageously.

Very truly yours,
