

FRED ORVILLE MC MILLAN

2485

Associate Professor of Electrical Engineering,
Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oregon.

Date and Place of Birth - May 13, 1890, Albia, Iowa.

Education - B.S. in Elec. Engg., Oregon State Agricultural College,
June 1912; M.S. in Elec. Engg., Union College, Schenectady,
N.Y., June 1919.

Record of experience -

July 9, 1913 - Entered the Testing Department of the General Electric Company, Schenectady, N.Y.

August 25, 1913 - Assistant to the Supervisor of the General Electric Experimental Railway, Schenectady, N.Y.

March 31, 1914 - Electrical Engineer in the Railway Equipment Engg.
Department, General Electric Company, Schenectady, N.Y. Continued in this position until January 1, 1920. Total time employed by the General Electric Company, 7 years 6 months.

January 1, 1920 - Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering,
Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oregon.

July 1, 1923 - Promoted to Associate Professor of Electrical Engg.
This is the position that I now hold. Total period employed in teaching electrical engineering to date, 6 years 5 months.

---

A.I.E.E. Papers

High Voltage Gaseous Conductor Lamps (with E. C. Starr) -----
Trans. A.I.E.E. Jan. 1929 - pp 11-17

---

From information not given on his application blank, it appears that Professor McMillan has done excellent work in teaching, the direction of thesis investigations, and high voltage insulator research.

---