Gentlemen:

Will you be kind enough to discontinue sending further publications, notices, etc. to the Office of the late Dr. C. O. Mailloux, 111 Fifth Ave.,
New York City. You no doubt have learned with regret that Dr. Mailloux passed away on October 4, 1932.

Very truly yours,

New York City.

My dear Mr. Henline:

I am profoundly touched by the Resolution adopted in memory of my uncle, Dr. C. O. Mailloux, by the Board of Directors of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, copy of which you were kind enough to send me. Dr. Mailloux, as I happen to know, was mightily interested in all that pertained to the welfare and the establishment of the lofty ideals for which the organization labored through the many years of its existence. And what little he was able to do for the advancement of its high aims and noble purpose he did gladly and with boundless enthusiasm.

I beg to assure you that we very greatly appreciate this beautiful tribute to the memory of Dr. Mailloux, and wishing you and your associates the largest measure of success, I am
