Gentlemen:

We were very sorry indeed to learn of the death of Dr. Ambrose Swasey, but appreciate your telegram of the 16th.

Through his highly important contributions to the advancement of science and its applications, Dr. Swasey achieved a place of outstanding prominence among engineers and others. His long and successful career will ever be a strong incentive to young men looking forward to the opportunity to render real services in connection with the modern applications of science.

We extend to his family and his company associates our keenest regret and most sincere sympathy.

Very truly yours,

National Secretary
