Dear Mr. Pope;-

I return, herewith, a bill for $25. for five annual dinner tickets. I was surprised to receive this bill, as I personally handed you a check for this amount on February 13th, my check No. 367 on the National Park Bank, and you sent it in by the boy to Mr. MacNab, in my presence.

Whoever is responsible for this mistake should be called down severely.

Very truly yours,

H. G. Stott
President.

Mr Wardlaw:-

I received a check from Mr. Stott for $30.00 all right before the Dinner, but supposed this bill was for something else.

W/H.Macnabb.

Mistake due to separating check and guide card before reaching Macnabb. Check to Macnabb direct, card to me by [signature] with no indication that payment has been made 3/4/58
