QUITS PUBLIC SERVICE AS ELECTRICAL CHIEF

NEWARK, Sept. 16. The Public Service Electric and Gas Company today announced the resignation of Farley Osgood, effective October 1, as vice-president and general manager in charge of electric operation.

Mr. Osgood has been with the company and its predecessors for seventeen years. After leaving the service of the company, Mr. Osgood plans to take a vacation, during which he will go to California in connection with his duties as president of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, to which position he was recently elected. Upon his return, he will undertake certain engineering work of the highest importance for several large electric companies, of which the Public Service is one.
