Dear Sir:

I have just returned from a visit in Europe at which time I saw Mr. Oliver Heaviside who is an honorary member of the A.I.E.E. Mr. Heaviside asked me when he could expect the Transactions and I told him I did not know at the time, in fact I was not sure whether the Transactions were mailed free to honorary members or not. If they are sent out free of charge I think it would be very much appreciated if you mailed them to him. He is a poor man and cannot well afford to buy the Transactions.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:-

It has just come to our attention that through some misunderstanding your name has not been included in the mailing list for the regular receipt of each edition of the Transactions of the Institute and we are therefore arranging to send you today the volumes for 1922, to be followed by the 1923 TRANSACTIONS which are now in the hands of the binder and scheduled for distribution about October 1st. ✓

If your file of Institute publications does not also contain the volumes for 1920 and 1921, we should appreciate a line from you to that effect, as we are not certain from the office records whether these volumes have not previously been mailed to you. We trust that you will accept our apology for the oversight and that the volumes mailed today will be received in good order.

Very truly yours,

Office Manager

Dear Sir:-

We thank you for calling attention in your letter of September 17th to the fact that Mr. Oliver Heaviside has not received a copy of each edition of the Annual Transactions, as published. Our records indicate that he should have received the volumes for 1919 and 1920 but owing to the change in the policy of distribution which took effect with the 1921 volume, his name was apparently omitted from the mailing list for this and subsequent volumes.

We have corrected the oversight today and have requested Mr. Heaviside to inform us of any other omissions in his file of the Annual Transactions commencing with the 1920 volume.

Again thanking you for reminding us of the oversight, I am

Very truly yours,

Secretary
