LADIES PROGRAM

A separate, and we hope entertaining, program will be held for the ladies. Coffee and sweetrolls will be available in the Plantation Room of the Hilton Inn from 9 to 10 A.M. Thursday morning.

A tour by car will start at 10 A.M. to show some of the fine homes and gardens in Atlanta.

Luncheon and bridge will be held at Hart's Peachtree, a famous Atlanta establishment. For those preferring not to play cards, arrangements have been made to provide transportation to Lenox Square, which is the largest and most modern region shopping center in the South.

Return to Hilton Inn at 5:30 P.M. and join the men at 6:30 P.M. for the social hour and banquet.

Friday morning at 9:30 A.M., a trip is planned to the Cyclorama in Grant Park, one of the outstanding attractions of Atlanta. Return to motel at 2:15 P.M.

MILL TOUR

Due to the lack of large mills in the the immediate Atlanta area, there will be no planned mill tours. For those interested, individual visits can be arranged by contacting in advance the mills listed below:

Bowaters Southern Paper Corporation,
Calhoun, Tennessee
Mr. M. J. Osborne, Chief Engineer

Rome Kraft Company, Rome, Georgia
Mr. J. S. Kirkland, Chief Electrician

GENERAL INFORMATION

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this conference is to provide information on the latest developments in electrical equipment applications for the Pulp and Paper Industry, and to promote cooperation and understanding between the designers, suppliers and users of electrical equipment.

A series of papers have been arranged which deal with problems of current interest. Ample time has been allotted for questions.

REGISTRATION:

Registration should be made in advance if possible. Envelopes are provided to simplify advanced registration. Fees include luncheon and banquet.

AIEE Pulp & Paper Registration.....	$15.00
Ladies Program	11.00
Extra Luncheon tickets	$3.25
Extra Banquet tickets	6.50

RESERVATIONS:

Preferably reservations should be made at Hilton Inn in Atlanta, Georgia, by May 1.

TRANSPORTATION:

Atlanta is easily reached by both rail and air. The Hilton Inn provides free transportation from the airport to the motel.

For those persons driving this trip in their own cars, take the South Expressway and follow signs to airport until reaching Hilton Inn.
