New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Henline:

In accordance with your telegram of January 31, I arranged for flowers at the funeral of Mr. B. J. Arnold, past President of the Institute. Since no price limitation was indicated I obtained a wreath which I though would be acceptable to the Institute and I hope this arrangement meets with your approval. I am enclosing herewith a bill for $15.30.

I also attended the funeral as a representative of the Chicago Section, A.I.E.E.

Yours very truly,

Chairman,
Chicago Section, A.I.E.E.

Mr. H. H. Heulinc and Gentlemen:-

I appreciate your kind thoughts and sympathy.

Mr. Arnold was ill for several months, and passed on with a stroke.

Funeral services at St Pauls Episcopal Church here in Chicago and then to Ashland, Nebraska for burial.

He was laid away in his full dress Colonel's Uniform, and looked so peacefull and young.

Thanking you again,
I am.

Mrs. Margaret L. Arnold.
