F. A. Norris, Office Manager,

33 West 39th St.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Norris:

Thank you for your letter of October 4th calling my attention to the fact that I had duplicated my payment of dues for the year 1939. Upon checking back, the situation as you outline it seems to be correct. I presume that I had received a second bill before my August payment reached you. It has usually been my intention to pay immediately upon the receipt of the first bill, but I was in the West for a considerable period and failed to make the prompt payment, which undoubtedly accounted for the second bill.

As far as clearing the situation, will you kindly credit the second $20.00 which I have sent you, as my payment for the next year, rather than going to the trouble of returning the amount.

Yours truly,

A. M. MacCutcheon.

For auditing purposes, will you kindly verify this duplication in payment from your personal records, whereupon we will immediately send you a refund of the second remittance.

Very truly yours,
