Dear Mr. Brosnan:

We sincerely appreciate the arrangements you made for flowers and for Institute representation at Mr. Johnson's funeral.

The Institute has indeed lost one of its most loyal and active workers. The depth and the breadth of Mr. Johnson's thinking could be fully appreciated only by one who had close contacts with him. I have said many times that if he had been able to continue in the activities throughout the year he would have done most effective work.

With best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

National Secretary

Dear Mr. Henline:

Mr. R. T. Henry passed along to me your telephone conversation of last Saturday and I arranged for flowers and representation at Mr. Johnson's funeral, for both the National Organization and the Niagara Frontier Section of the A.I.E.E. I have asked the florist to submit the bill for the National A.I.E.E. flowers directly to your office. I looked over the floral offering personally before it was delivered and I can assure you it was a very beautiful piece and a fitting tribute from the organization.

We have lost in Mr. Johnson a true friend in our daily work and also a constant and very helpful advisor in all of the institute activities.

With very best personal regards, I am,

Very truly yours

T. J. BROSNAN
