Gentlemen:

It gives us great pleasure to present to you a copy of the special edition of The Japan Times which was published as a tribute to the late Mr. Thomas A. Edison.

We, too, in the Far East, deeply mourned the passing away of this world's greatest benefactor of recent years. His inventions have made the whole world a better and a happier place, and we, here, cannot help being inspired by the tremendous services which this noble American citizen has rendered to mankind.

The Japan Times, an English language newspaper in Japan, took upon itself to mirror the deep reverence which the Japanese people hold for Mr. Thomas A. Edison.

Yours very truly,

Junpei Shiba
