England.

Dear Sir:

I have the honor of notifying you that our Board of Directors has unanimously elected you an Honorary Member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

It gives me much pleasure to transmit herewith a copy of the resolutions adopted by the Board, conferring upon you this mark of appreciation of your distinguished services to electrical engineering and its allied sciences:

WHEREAS, Silvanus P. Thompson has rendered service of far-reaching value to the electrical science and arts by numerous contributions to their literature and bibliography, and also admirable service in securing general recognition of the previously little known work in the field of Electricity of men of other times, notably Petrus Peregrinus, Gilbert and Reis; and

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers provides that by the unanimous vote of all of the members of the Board of Directors, Honorary Members may be chosen from among those who have rendered acknowledged eminent services to electrical engineering or its allied sciences; it is

RESOLVED, that Silvanus P. Thompson, of London, England, be elected, in recognition of the achievements above related, to honorary membership in the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

(2) - Dr. Silvanus P. Thompson:

Anticipating your acceptance, the Board has directed me to have these resolutions engrossed and forwarded to you, together with a badge distinctive of the grade of Honorary Member. The resolutions are now being prepared and will be forwarded to you with the badge in regular course.

Welcoming you on behalf of our membership to the honor roll of the Institute, and placing all of its facilities at your service, I am

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Subject: Honorary Membership
certificate for Silvanus
P. Thompson.

Messrs. Ames and Rollinson,
203 Broadway, New York.

Gentlemen:

Please engross the accompanying resolutions in the form of a certificate of honorary membership, similar in type and general style and arrangement to the photographed certificate sent herewith, prepared for us by you several years ago. The certificate is to be of parchment, size 12 inches by 16 inches. When completed it is to be photographed and framed to match the photograph of the Blandel certificate.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

F. L. Hutchinson, Esq.,

Secy. of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers,

Dear Sir:—

Yesterday I received the parcel containing the framed Certificate of Honorary Membership, and a few days previous the Badge of the A.I.E.E., which you have been so good as to send to me.

Pray permit me to thank you again, and more particularly for the very beautifully illuminated Certificate, which now hangs in my room. I greatly value these tokens of the good will and esteem of my friends and colleagues across the water.

Yours most truly,
Silvanus P. Thompson
