Dear Bob,

I wholeheartedly support the idea. I thought of this a long time back but due to lack of members I did not pursue. We are successful of forming a sub-section in New Zealand (Wellington and Palmerston North area). I am the secretary of the sub-section.
 Now I am working on it to make it a full section.

NZ Central Subsection

I think this email will do. I support your move to form a chapter of IEEE magnetics society in Australia and New Zealand. My membership number is SM 40224732.

Thanks and best regards,
 Subhas.

Dear Subhas Mukhopadhyay

I am writing in regards to the possibility of forming a new Chapter of the IEEE Magnetism Society. The motivation comes from a recent email in which the current president (Kevin O'Grady) writes:

"A number of people here in Europe thought that it would be a good idea to try and get increased representation from the southern hemisphere. This is a view with which I concur."

I have also been encouraged by a few of our North American colleagues on the Administration Committee to explore the idea of forming a new chapter in the Asia-Pacific region.

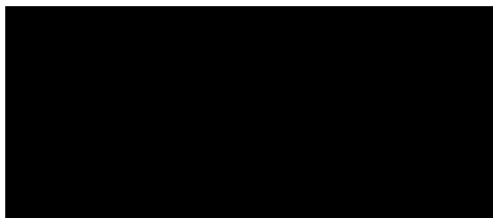

Some advantages:

1. Once the chapter is set up we can apply for modest funding to support programmes of meetings and particularly student travel to get to them. Another possible bonus is that the Distinguished Lecturer programme is now integrated with chapters and this would give us the opportunity to invite the Distinguished Lecturers to come and visit.
2. Those of us involved in magnetism in this part of the world are few and indeed far between. Formation of a chapter goes some distance towards promoting the work that we do, and building new links between ourselves and other members of the Society.

I have attached a word document and pdf version of a petition to form a chapter. In order to succeed, at least 12 signatures are needed. Given that there are only 18 members in New Zealand and Australia, I feel as if the Society has set for us something of a challenge. I have seven signatures at present, and so need at least five more.

If you support the formation of a chapter, then simply sign the petition and send it to me by any of the following three ways:
